which consisted of music, both vocal and instrumental, and recitations. The Christmas tree was very artistically trimmed and lighted with electric lights. Old Santa Claus was very much in evidence, to the delight of the children, and made them a talk about Christmas, after which he helped to distribute the presents and the treat, which had been so generously provided for each member of the school. Plans are being prepared for a revival service in March. The conference evangelist, Rev. R. F. Campbell, with two lady singers, is to assist in the meeting. The official board will meet fun day at 4 p. m. The public is cordially invited

Wellsville Star.

Justice W. Y. Broughall tells the Star he received a letter a few days ago from John I Fulton of Brendon, Colo., in which Mr. Fulton said they and all the former Wellsville people in that part of the state were well and happy.

Two young men of pleasing address recently "gave away" several town lots to Montgomery City people. A charge of $6.75 was made, however, for each deed and about $200 was gathered in. The lots are said to be in Fertile City, Texas, but a quiet investigation has led some to believe that they are in the air. Several in Wellsville were also "given" town lots.

The Wellsville High School now boasts of more approved work than any other high school in Montgomery county. Under Supt. R. V.
